

SEMINAR INVITATION: DEBT COLLECTION IN MYANMAR

Two years have passed since our last seminar on this topic - time to do it again, with an updated agenda.

PROPOSED AGENDA:

- Amicable collection (yes, it works sometimes)
- How to file and pursue a case with the police
- Litigation: Things to remember as a foreign plaintiff or a local plaintiff suing a foreigner; statute of limitations; procedural steps
- Attachment
- Injunctions
- Enforcement of court decrees
- Arbitration
- Enforcement of foreign judgments and foreign arbitral awards
- Is it possible for foreign employees to collect outstanding salary and enforce their employment contract?

Date and time	Wednesday, 6 June 2018, 2:30pm - 4:00pm (reception opens at 2:00pm)
Place	KLOUD Serviced Offices at Junction City Tower, 14 th Floor, No. 3/A Bogyoke Aung San Road, Pabedan Township (please bring an identity card as there is a security check on the ground floor)
Speakers	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Sebastian Pawlita▪ U Nyein Chan Zaw
Language	English
Entrance fee	Ks. 10,000 per person, payable at the reception desk
Registration	Please register by sending an e-mail to sebastian@lincolnmyanmar.com or nyeinchanzaw@lincolnmyanmar.com , stating the name of your company and the names of the participants.