Government of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar
Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population
Minister's Office
Notification No. 83/2020
7th Waxing Day of Kasone, 1382
Nay Pyi Taw, 28th April 2020

1. The Ministry of Labour, Immigration and Population announced on 19th April 2020 that inspections will be conducted from 20th April to 30th April 2020 of factories, workplaces and establishments and only those factories, workplaces and establishments complying with the instructions from the Ministry of Health and Sports will be allowed to reopen.
2. According to this announcement, some of the factories, workplaces and establishments had to temporarily close, although they had planned to reopen on 20th April 2020. Therefore, insured workers registered with the Social Security Board working at these factories, workplaces and establishments had to temporarily stop working from 20th April 2020 until the reopening date.
3. Therefore, 40% of the salary declared and for which social security contributions were paid for the month of (1/2020) [Translator's note: We suppose that this refers to "January 2020"] will be paid according to sections 13(b)(2), 100 Social Security Law 2012 to those insured workers registered with the Social Security Board who are temporarily out of work based on the days on which they are out of work.
4. Employers whose factories, workplaces and establishments match the provisions of paragraph 3 above shall apply to the relevant Township Social Security Offices in order to obtain benefits granted by the Social Security Fund from the date of this Notification for their insured workers registered with the Social Security Board.
5. The provisions above shall come into force on the date of this Notification.

U Thein Swe
Union Minister
